

Corporate HR Policy Document

Anti-Harassment and Non-Discrimination Policy

1. Zero Tolerance: The company has a zero-tolerance policy for any form of harassment, discrimination, or bullying based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or any other protected class.
2. Reporting Procedure: Any employee who witnesses or experiences harassment should immediately report it to their manager, Human Resources, or the anonymous whistleblowing hotline at 1-800-555-0199.
3. Investigation Process: All reports will be investigated promptly and confidentially. The company will take appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination, for any employee found to have violated this policy.
4. Retaliation: Retaliation against any employee who makes a good-faith report of harassment is strictly prohibited and is itself a terminable offense.
5. Mandatory Training: All employees must attend an annual anti-harassment training workshop. Managers must attend an additional leadership training session focusing on conflict resolution and bias mitigation.
